18. Description - Stone house. One-story three-bay. Stone section connects this with another stone section.
19. History John Martin came from Goochland County, VA and came to Kentucky with D. Boone and later returned with his family in 1782. They were members of the Old Providence Church.
20. Significance John Martin came from Goochland County, Virginia and claimed land on Lower Howard's Creek, where Martin's station was erected. After the stockaded station era, substantial houses, such as this one-story, three-bay stone dwelling were erected by the settlers. This house was the residential center of this early industrial complex.
